DECISION OR INFORMATION:	Decision
DATE RECEIVED:*	15/10/2021
REF:* (to be inserted by the OPCC)	2021.102

TITLE:	Sexual Violence Mental Health Practitioner Pilot – Additional cost

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY:

Further to Decision Record 2021.015 the Sexual Violence Mental Health Practitioner Pilot started in May 2021 and will run until 31st August 2022. The Pilot involves seconding a SVA Mental Health Practitioner into specialist SVA services to provide specialist assessment and assess to mental health interventions for sexual violence survivors as well as raising awareness and building the capacity of staff and volunteers in working with survivors and mental ill health.

The PCC is requested to approve an additional £4,194 from Community Safety Grant for the additional salary costs associated with the Sexual Violence Mental Health Practitioner as a result of the cost of living rise.

INFORMATION IN SUPPORT OF DECISION: (eg report or business case)

The seconded Mental Health Practitioner has received a pay award based on cost of living increases. In order to ensure that this Practitioner continues to be seconded as part of the Pilot project these additional costs need to be met.

Further detail around the Sexual Violence Mental Health Practitioner pilot can be found in Decision Record 2021.015.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The additional costs for this pilot are a further £4,194 revenue funding which will come from the Community safety Grant.
