Dear

Re: Request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA)

Thank you for your request for information, which was received by the Nottinghamshire Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner on 17 May 2021.

INFORMATION REQUESTED

Please could I request under the Freedom of Information Act a summary of the qualitative and quantitative research you have undertaken (surveys, focus groups, depth interviews) that have focused on public or victim perceptions of policing generally or your force specifically, covering 2019 and 2020 calendar years. Ideally, I would like to see the outputs of the research, but if that is not possible then a simple summary of what research has been undertaken would suffice.

RESPONSE

Under S 1 (1) (a) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA), I can confirm that the Nottinghamshire Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner does hold the information you have requested.

Please find below answers to your questions:-

The Nottinghamshire PCC has commissioned an independent resident survey since 2017 which remains the primary mechanism by which levels of public trust, confidence and satisfaction with the police are tracked. The survey is undertaken over four quarterly tranches of fieldwork each year in order to minimise skews caused by seasonality or significant events. Over 4,200 responses are achieved each year based on a sampling scheme which is representative of the local population by age, gender, employment status and ethnicity at Local Authority level. The survey provides a margin of error of +/-3% at the 95% confidence level across the force area.

Please find the end of calendar year summary reports attached for the 2019 and 2020 calendar years as requested. Further quarterly reports can be accessed via our website – https://www.nottinghamshire.pcc.police.uk/Public-Information/Performance/Performance-2020.aspx and on request from the Nottinghamshire OPCC.

Further to this, the OPCC also commissions public focus groups on an annual basis to seek views on the precept for policing. These are often used to explore views on other aspects of policing, which in 2019 included public views on police officer safety and in 2020 included public views on policing the pandemic. Please feel free to contact the Nottinghamshire OPCC directly should this information be relevant to your enquiry.

Levels of victim satisfaction with the services they receive are tracked and monitored via the Commissioner's quarterly Performance and Insight report which can be accessed via the OPCC website. Please note that this does not include more general information relating to overall perceptions of the police. Similarly, the PCC commissioned a Serious Violence and Abuse Needs Assessment in October 2019 which sought feedback from victims on their perceptions of the Criminal Justice System and the extent to which sufficient support was available (see page 144).

I hope that you find this information useful and please do not hesitate to contact the OPCC should any further clarification be required.

Should you have any further enquiries concerning this matter, please write or contact the Freedom of Information Officer on telephone number 0115 8445998 or e-mail carolinehenrypcc@nottinghamshire.pnn.police.uk

Yours sincerely
