2. RESEARCH, DEVELOPMENT AND STATISTICS

National Policing Wellbeing Survey 2019 – Published 25 June 2020

The National Police Wellbeing Service publishes findings from the first national police wellbeing survey, which received responses from over 34,000 police officers and staff across England and Wales between November 2019 and January 2020. The survey found that while the majority (65%) felt satisfaction in their work, around 67% of officers and 50% of staff reported feeling symptoms of post-traumatic stress and 45% of officers reported frequently having less than 6 hours sleep. Responding to the results, the National Police Wellbeing Service and the College of Policing have committed to prioritise research into ways of tackling fatigue.

Criminal court statistics quarterly: January to March 2020 – Published 25 June 2020

The Magistrates' courts saw a large (11%) increase in outstanding cases during this period, reaching their highest level since 2015. This has been largely driven by a 7% reduction in disposals, with receipts remaining stable. Outstanding cases in the Crown Court have increased by 21% on the previous year. Vacated trials in the magistrates' and Crown Courts increased by 39% and 7% respectively during the January to March 2019 period. Positively, however, waiting times at Crown Court continue to fall, standing at around 6.1 weeks during this period compared to a peak of 13 weeks in 2015.

Forced Marriage Unit statistics 2019 – Published 25 June 2020

The Forced Marriage Unit (FMU) gave advice or support in 1,355 cases related to a possible forced marriage in 2019, which represented a 10% decrease on 2018, but was broadly consistent with the average number supported per year since 2011 (1,359). Of the cases that FMU provided support to in 2019, the majority (80%) were female victims, 363 (27%) involved victims below 18 years of age and 137 cases (10%) involved victims with a learning disability. Cases related to 66 'focus countries', excluding the UK, with the highest being Pakistan (559 cases, 41%), Bangladesh (144 cases, 11%), India (65 cases, 5%) and Afghanistan (54 cases, 4%). Around 7% (72) of cases involved no overseas element. Statistics for 2013 and 2014 also published.

4. REVIEWS AND INQUIRIES

Domestic Abuse: Expert Panel on Harm in the Family Courts – 25 June 2020

Ministry of Justice publishes the expert panel's final report on assessing the risk of harm in private law cases involving disputes between parents about arrangements for their children. The report is published alongside an Implementation Plan which includes measures to better protect domestic abuse victims the family courts by:-

- Ensuring more victims to receive special protections in court such as access to separate building entrances and waiting rooms to their alleged abuser and protective screens to shield them in court
- Making it easier for judges to issue barring orders which prevent abusive ex-partners from repeatedly bringing their victims back to court
- Trialling of a new investigative approach as part of the Integrated Domestic Abuse Courts pilot which consider family and criminal matters in parallel in order to provide more consistent support for victims
- Launch of a review into the presumption of 'parental involvement' that often encourages a child's relationship with both parents, unless the involvement of that parent would put the child at risk.
