

Disclosable Interests Notification of Personal and Pecuniary Interests

You must use this form to provide us with details of your Personal and Pecuniary Interests.

Personal and Pecuniary Interests include your interests and the interests of your spouse, civil partner or a person you are living with as if they were with your spouse or civil partner. Note: You do not have to separately identify which is your interest or that of your partner.

The information you provide will be used to update your register of interests.

You are advised to keep your register of interests up to date. Failure to do so may result in a criminal offence.

Personal and Pecuniary Interests to be registered on taking office

You must provide us with details of all your Personal and Pecuniary Interests within 28 days of becoming the Police and Crime Commissioner.

Personal and Pecuniary Interests disclosed at meetings

Where you declare any unregistered Personal or Pecuniary Interest at a meeting, you must provide us with details of that interest within 28 days of the meeting.

Sensitive Interests

Personal and Pecuniary Interests that are included on the register of interests will be publicly available.

Where you are concerned that the disclosure of an interest would lead to you or a person connected with you being subject to violence or intimidation, you may request the Monitoring Officer to agree that the interest is a “sensitive interest”.

The Monitoring Officer can exclude the detail of the interest from the publicly available version of the register.
