UPDATE TO POLICE AND CRIME DELIVERY PLAN (2016-18)

1. PURPOSE OF THE REPORT

- 1.1 This report explains how the Commissioner intends to respond to the public and stakeholder consultation undertaken in 2016 and details further additions made to his Police and Crime Delivery Plan (2016-18).

2. RECOMMENDATIONS

- 2.1 That the Chief Constable agrees to implement the Force denoted actions detailed in Appendix A of this report.

3. REASONS FOR RECOMMENDATIONS

- 3.1 At the Police and Crime Panel meeting on 1st February 2016, the Commissioner presented his refreshed Police and Crime Plan for 2016-18.<sup>a</sup> Following his re-election in May 2016, at the September Police and Crime Panel meeting the Commissioner reported how he intended to deliver his seven new pledges. Revisions were made to the Strategic Framework of his Police and Crime Plan (2016-18) and new activities were introduced.
- 3.2 The Commissioner does not intend to refresh his Police and Crime Plan in its entirety until the new Chief Constable (who took office on 1st February 2017), has had chance to review, consider and advise the Commissioner on the strategic imperatives and activity required to take the Force forward. Therefore, this report provides details on the new strategic activities to be added to his current Police and Crime Delivery Plan (2016-18) arising from the public and stakeholder consultation undertaken in 2016 and findings of the Police and Crime Needs Assessment.
- 3.3 All activities will be advanced and monitored until implementation. It is envisaged that the Commissioner's new Police and Crime Plan with new themes will be submitted to the Panel in February 2018 for implementation on 1st April 2018 to 31st March 2021.<sup>b</sup>

4. Summary of Key Points

- 4.1 The Police Reform and Social Responsibility (PR&SR) Act 2011 places a statutory duty on the Commissioner to publish a Police and Crime Plan for his policing area. Section 5(1) of the PR&SR Act 2011 requires the Commissioner to 'issue a Police and Crime Plan within the financial year in which each ordinary election is held'. In this respect, the Commissioner has chosen to re-issue his existing Plan previously submitted to the Police and Crime Panel on 1st February 2016; albeit with additional strategic activities to support his new pledges.
- 4.2 For example, rather than refresh the Plan in its entirety, the Commissioner informed the Police and Crime Panel in September 2016 that he had chosen to refresh the Strategic Framework (activity section) of the Plan (Appendix B pages 44 to 45 refer) to ensure that action is undertaken to fulfil his seven new pledges.
- 4.3 The Strategic Framework lists a range of activities which support the Commissioner's seven existing strategic themes. The Commissioner intends to retain these seven themes until the Plan is fully refreshed for implementation in April 2018.
- 4.4 In addition, following consultation and the findings of the Police and Crime Needs Assessment<sup>c</sup> undertaken in 2016, in particular, the stakeholder holder events held on 9th and 15th December, in response to emerging risks, new activities have been identified and added to the existing Police and Crime Delivery Plan (2016-18). Appendix A of this report details to the additional activities and the rationale.

Delivery Plan

- 4.5 The refreshed Strategic Framework will be program managed and subsequently reported to the Panel as and when each of the seven strategic themes are reviewed as specified in the Panel's work plan. Each strategic activity is assigned a lead officer which may be one of the Commissioner's staff, a Partner or the Force (denoted by a C, P or F in the activity reference). Each of the seven new pledges has been assigned to a strategic lead who will take responsibility for the effective delivery of the actions.

5. Financial Implications and Budget Provision

- 5.1 Financial implications and budget provision has been highlighted in a separate draft Budget Report 2017-18.
